HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H B Hoagland we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient safe and secure

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO OCTOBER 7

Gale in New Brunswick

SACKVILLE N B Oct [illegible]—A tremendous gale occurred here. The cable wires were destroyed and a tidal wave caused great destruction of property on the Bay of Fundy and in and around St Johns. It rose to a great height tearing away and destroying an immense amount of property. The wharves were raised and ships, houses and cattle swept away. The bridge of the European and North American Railway was destroyed. In this small parish alone a million of dollars was lost.

The Gale in Maine

BANGOR Oct 7—Letters from Calais say the damage to vessels and buildings was very great. Eastport is reported as nearly demolished.

New York News.

NEW YORK Oct 7—The breaks on the Erie and Hudson River Railroad are repaired and trains are running regularly.

Doughty and Marie charged with an attempted assassination of officer Brooks were taken to Philadelphia. Judge McCunn having disregarded the writ of habeas corpus in the case.

PHILADELPHIA Oct 7—The Age publishes an account of the hanging of a negro at Whitehall Station by a mob who rescued him from the officers having in custody. He was charged with an outrage on an old lady.

Virginia Legislature.

RICHMOND Oct. 7—In the Senate the protest of the Republican Wells caucus against the legality of the body was taken up and read. It announces that the Republican members reserve to themselves the right at any time to secede from the present Legislature and organize by themselves a legal territorial Legislature. The Senate voted to lay it on the table. Governor Walker sent in a message on the Fifteenth Amendment. He says the people of Virginia at the late election adopted by an overwhelming majority the principles asserted in the amendment, namely Civil and political equality to all men before the law. He declared that the people of Virginia intended to maintain this principle in the utmost good faith.

Railroad Convention

OSWEGO Oct 7—The Railroad Convention elected J F Briggs of Michigan President and a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The following resolutions were reported and referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

That direct railroad communication on a short line across the continent with the eastern terminus at Portland Maine and the western at the mouth of the Columbia river or on Puget Sound is demanded as a great commercial highway not alone by the intermediate territory directly interested but by both the continents of Asia and Europe. Recess till 2 o'clock.

Fair at St. Louis

ST LOUIS Oct 7—To-day was generally observed as a holiday. Business was mostly suspended at the suggestion of the Mayor to allow all classes to attend the fair. The crowd at the fair grounds was large. 100,000 people were present.

Tennessee Legislature

NASHVILLE, Oct 7—Nothing important was transacted to-day. The Governor's message will not be delivered till Monday. The Democrats charge that the cause of this delay is his desire to prevent the defeat of the Fifteenth Amendment before the October election, they believing that its defeat which seems a foregone conclusion, would aid Pendleton.

General News

HAVANA Oct 7—The American man of war Powhattan arrived off the harbor to-day and sent a boat ashore for mails. The officers report all on board well.

RICHMOND Oct 7—The Conservative caucus to-night resolved to adopt the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments immediately.

NEW YORK Oct 7—The Republican State Convention this evening nominated W B Taylor for State Engineer and Horace Greeley for Comptroller subject to their acceptance.

CHICAGO Oct 7—A fire this afternoon destroyed ten buildings on North Clark street and damaged several others. Loss about $150 000.

ROME N Y Oct 7—A large portion of the Seymour House and some adjoining buildings were burned to-day. The loss is estimated at $80,000.

SPRINGFIELD Oct. 7—The first train for Boston since Monday left this afternoon.

NEW YORK Oct 7—The Republican State Convention have nominated Gen Sigel for Secretary of State.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

PARIS Oct. 7—Bullion in the Bank of France has decreased 38 000 000 francs in the past week.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct [illegible]—A disastrous fire broke out at ten last night in Ashley & Co's salt mills on Sacramento street, between Davis and Front. Before the flames were checked several adjoining buildings were destroyed or greatly damaged. Henry Frank furniture dealer occupied the adjoining store on the west. The building was a one story brick. The roof was considerably damaged and between fire and water the stock was nearly destroyed. Waterman & Westheimer liquor dealers occupied the store No 219, adjoining Funks. The rear of their premises was burned and the stock was badly damaged. Olympia Correspondence

OLYMPIA W T, Oct 5 1869

Both Houses of the Legislature assembled and were permanently organized to-day. All the officers elected are old and tried Republicans, although a strong effort was made by the sorehead Federal clique to form a coalition with the Democrats for the purpose of defeating the caucus nominees. In the Council Marshall Blinn of Kitsap county and Fred A Clarke of Pierce county are the only bolting Republicans while in the lower House more can be found. Three members of the Council are absent and it is uncertain whether they will attend at all. The following is the permanent organization of both Houses: President of the Council, W L McLane. Chief Clerk Lawrence Bagley. Assistant Clerk, C H Blake. Sergeant at-arms, E W. Beall. Enrolling Clerk E Ellis. Doorkeeper, D House. Chaplain, Rev G H Hann. Speaker of the House Geo H Steward, Chief Clerk Elwood Evans. Assistant Clerk E Curtis, Sergeant-at-arms J V Hossman; Doorkeeper, H J Stevens.

During the last session of the Legislature a code commission was appointed for the purpose of revising the laws of the Territory. It is understood that the commission is ready to report and the same will probably be adopted, if it meets with no opposition from Gov Flanders who, as it is believed by many will do all in his power to clog Republican legislation. The report of the Code Commission will be a complete one supplying omissions and imperfections, and will supply a great want that has been seriously felt by the people of the Territory.

A joint Convention for the election of Territorial officers will probably be held before the close of the week. The present incumbents are all copperheads and were elected some four years ago. The law requires them to be elected annually but during the last four years the Democrats have had entire control of one or the other of the two branches of the Legislature and consequently refused to go into joint convention. This year there is a Republican majority of two on joint ballot and hence the days of John Miller Murphy & Co are numbered.

The Tribune office has commenced the publication of a small daily newspaper which promises to be a permanent concern. It may be that it will prove a paying investment if business continues lively and brisk but the well informed are of the opinion that a reaction will take place before long after a recovery from the all prevailing territorial fever which for some time past has been raging on the shores of the finest body of water in the world.

The School at Forest Grove

A friend from Olympia W T having recently visited the Pacific University at Forest Grove writes as follows:

This Institution under the instruction of President Marsh and Professors Lyman Collier Marsh brother of the President and Anderson I found to be doing a good work. The number of students in the College classes is small and with the thorough classical and scientific course prescribed must be so until the students in the academic department come up to a standard of attainments that fit them to enter upon it. And I was most happy to find this preparatory work so well done. Professor Anderson is a complete master of his situation a perfect disciplinarian and the most exact and truly successful teacher I have found in all my travels. No pupil under his tuition can go slipshod over any subject he pretends to learn or disregard any of the rules to which he is subject and yet everything in the intercourse between teacher and pupil is characterized by the utmost kindness and courtesy.

The President is absent on business connected with the pecuniary wants of the Institution but the very competent and faithful officers associated with him are carrying forward the college proper in a very thorough manner. These men need and are worthy of encouragement. They want means to put in better condition the College and Academy buildings to replenish and arrange their library to furnish their laboratory and collect and arrange a cabinet of natural history all which are well begun but need enlargement and completion. But first of all they need a good boarding department under the control of a competent man who will be in sympathy with the faculty and co-operate with them in all things pertaining to the welfare of the pupils. Forest Grove is one of the most beautiful situations for a school in the State. It is not far away from all town and city influences free from temptation to dissipation and healthful alike to body mind and morals. With good boarding accommodations it would be easy to double the patronage of the school in a very short time. The rates of tuition are extremely low and the instruction and discipline of a very high order. The people of Oregon can well afford to foster and encourage the Pacific University by their means their patronage and their prayers.

Senator Williams at Canyon City

CANYON CITY Oregon Oct 4th 1869

FRIEND [illegible]

Hon Geo H Williams paid us a visit on Thursday of last week and remained until Saturday morning. He made one of his best speeches and it has produced a good effect. I have no time to review his speech which was about two hours long. He treated of all the political issues of the day and did it in good style. There was quite a large attendance but not so large as there would have been had it been known that he was coming. Many have been heard to express their regret that they missed hearing the first United States Senator who ever visited Grant county. If there are any candidates in the Union party who aspire to be the successor of Judge Williams they must visit this county before they can expect to be successful rivals of his—so far at least as this [illegible]

THE WEST

[illegible] Falls of Vallejo (Cal) who went East early in the war and became Inspector of the cavalry of the Potomac army under General McClellan has received the appointment of Collector of Customs for the port of Vallejo.

The Austin Nevada Reveille describes a Grecian Bender of that city undergoing the agony of the "Kangaroo skip," and says that the latter is as graceful as the dignified strut of a lame Shanghai in the wet grass. The author of the simile certainly has the "divine afflatus."

Since the Pacific railroad penetrated the solitude of Brigham Young's domain much has been said about the gradual extinction of Mormonism. But Brigham is not frightened. With his own private family and those of one or two Elders he can start a respectable colony almost anywhere. The population never decreases in his empire.

The Virginia (Nev) Enterprise of the 28th September says: Yesterday work was commenced on the Sutro Tunnel. Some ten men were set to work cutting the "approach" to the tunnel. In about ten days when [illegible] about twenty feet high has been gained, the tunnel itself will be commenced on which occasion there will be a grand inaugural blow out at the mouth of the tunnel. Mr Sutro says there is no such word as fail and that the work will now be greatly pushed forward. This is the tunnel for which a Government subsidy of several millions was asked and refused.

On the authority of the Stockton (Cal) Independent Captain Moss who is a large owner of tule lands in San Joaquin regularly employs gangs of Chinese in the work of ditching, diking and reclaiming these lands. Captain Moss is the principal proprietor in the San Francisco Examiner and one of the leading Democrats of California. He is a man eminently practical in all his ways, who keeps a sharp lookout to the main chance and who has grown very rich by the judicious management of his worldly affairs. While he is willing that his editors shall gull the stupid and unreasoning with their false [illegible] things for himself he scorns all such nostrums, and hires Chinese when he finds it serviceable to his interest to do so.

A prodigious sensation has been produced among the Democratic papers of California by the publication of a letter from Senator Shaw (Dem) of San Francisco, who writes from China that the better classes of the people there are a stalwart, hardy race, and an invoice of one thousand landed at San Francisco could easily hold their own against a third [illegible] number of the self-constituted [illegible] Committee that flourished before he left, and in physique they are as far ahead of them in the moral qualifications which form the elements of civilization. As a Democratic [illegible] he should prefer them as constituents, if the choice was based upon shrewd native intelligence, that could detect without prejudice right from [illegible].

OREGON.

The State Sunday School Convention at Salem commenced yesterday (Friday) at the Congregational Church. It will continue over Sunday.

Reports come from farmers throughout Willamette valley that they have never seen grass so good in the fall as it is at this time. They think that cattle will stand the rainy season better than usual even if we should have a hard winter.

From the State [illegible]: We learn that a son of Darter Keene when driving a team the other day, had a runaway in which the wagon was overturned, the bed striking his leg, breaking it. Also, a man named Jennings got his foot caught in the cogs of a threshing machine, by which the toes and part of the foot were badly mashed.

The Salem Statesman says: The schooner Louisa Simpson left Siletz about the middle of September with cargo of 120 000 feet of lumber, and missing the channel, owing to an unfavorable wind the vessel struck on the sands, which [illegible] a leak but feeling confident of being able to keep her clear the Captain continued on his voyage. A passenger writes back from San Francisco that the leak gained so that it was necessary to throw overboard 50,000 feet of lumber, the deck load. The vessel drifted south 300 miles, making signals of distress and was towed into one of the harbors on the coast and after repairing, proceeded to San Francisco. The trade of Yaquina Bay is increasing. A new schooner will probably be built and running next season.

FRIVOLITIES OF FASHION—A fashion writer discourses the "frivolities of fashion" in this style:

Man has his military journals, that he may learn how to break man's bones, and his journals of surgery that he may learn how to [illegible] them; has his journals of mining, and engineering, and metallurgy and architecture that he may excavate tunnels, build bridges, [illegible], and run railways. Woman has her journals, that she may learn to fix the blushes on the rose, the perfume in the violet the summer sunset on the glowing leaf, that she may learn how to [illegible] with every charm, the secret of which she wins from the wave or shell, or feather, or bird or heart or carbon or which she gleans from the written or pictured words of writer or artists who live nearer heaven than she does, and share more privately the confidence of the gods. Who shall undertake to determine whether man's "little frivolities" or hers are the greater?

National Debts Compared

There are two countries Great Britain and Holland, which have larger debts in proportion to their population than the United States Several other countries have debts which are not trifling The following is the latest classification of national debts with the rate per capita

	National Debt	Annual Per Head £	s	d
Sweden	£4 714,880	1	0	0
Norway	1,864 16[illegible]	1	1	1
Chili South America	2 933 40[illegible]	1	1
Prussia (1866)	47 123 064	1	1[illegible]	5
Turkey	69 142 [illegible]	1	19	1
Brazil	[illegible] 62 [illegible]59		1
Russia	2[illegible]4 544		14	1
Belgium	25 079 6[illegible]	[illegible]	1
Bavaria	[illegible] 660 26		8	5
Austria	288 965 064
Denmark	14 86[illegible] 46[illegible]	8	15
Italy	211 503 296	9	8
Portugal	42 930 4	9	17	4
Spain	168 927 471	11	4	0
Greece	14 000 [illegible]	12	1[illegible]	3
France	608 660 0[illegible]	14	15	9
United States	579 580 391	15	16	[illegible]
Holland	81 700 99	[illegible]1	17	10
Great Britain	797,031 650	[illegible]6	10	0

The difference in favor of the United States as compared with other nations which have great debts, is not fairly shown in any statement like the above, For it should be remembered that while the indebtedness of most other nations is scacely at all diminishing that of the United States is being reduced at a rate which promises its complete extinguishment within the lifetime of multitudes now living. Besides, there is no other country on the globe which can boast of resources equal to our own, and as the true way of ascertaining the burden of a public debt is to compare it with the ability which a country possesses of paying it, the fact at once becomes obvious that in this respect we are the most favored of nations Then, too it is apparent that while many of the older countries have reached nearly the utmost point of development of which they are capable, the resources of more than half our country are as yet untouched. Therefore while their wealth is increasing so slowly as to be nearly stationary, the wealth of the United States, in spite of the recent waste of war, is increasing with marvellous rapidity. Considerations like these show how favored our country is as compared with others, notwithstanding the great amount of debt which, since the rebellion, we have been called upon to provide for

Chinese Immigration Decreasing

After all that has been said about the great and emergent danger that this country will shortly be overrun by immigration from the Asiatic nations, the figures show that those people are coming in less numbers than fifteen years ago. Such a fact as this should be a poser for those who of late have been harping so dolefully on this theme During eight months of the present year the number of Chinese arrivals at San Francisco have been a little under eleven thousand The same ratio for the remainder of the year would increase the number to 16,500. But the departures during the present year are so numerous that, according to the Bulletin, there has really been but little addition to the Chinese population during the year. Going back seventeen years, we find that the number of arrivals in 1852 was 18,434. In 1854 upwards of 15,000 came into California From 1852 to 1863 inclusive, a period of eleven years, the aggregate of arrivals was 88,402, or over 8,000 a year, while the arrivals from 1863 to the present time have averaged but 3,219 annually It thus appears that while the country was under Democratic control the Chinese came into the United States more than twice as fast as they have come since the Republicans obtained the ascendency, yet we are told that the policy of the Democratic party was to discourage the immigration of the inferior races, while the Republicans, on the other hand, have pursued such a policy as to flood the country with "heathen Asiatics." If there is so much danger that the United States will be overrun by Chinese why did not the Democratic party take measures to prevent it fifteen years ago, when these people were coming in much greater numbers than now? Why did not the Democratic Representatives in Congress from the Pacific coast raise the alarm They had the entire delegation in that body, but not one word ever escaped them on the subject. Are not these facts sufficient to brand that party with hypocracy in its present efforts to make political capital out of this question?

In General.

The Pacific Blade, the new McMinnville paper, is out with an initial number that is a credit to the journalism of our State It is written up with great care, and its typographical appearance is all that could be desired. As a local paper it will supply a real want in the "west side counties." Mr. McPherson has only to continue as he has begun, and he will furnish a paper that will win its way to a large patronage

The Herald speaks of the withdrawal of State patronage from a Memphis Republican paper by the Governor of Tennessee, and says "If there are not enough Radicals in West Tennessee to support a party organ, it would seem to be no injustice on the part of the government of the State to let it go on" This principle applied to the Herald would have sunk that concern long ago. It would have been dead and forgotten long ere now but for the support it has received from our city government.

The Herald states that O H Browning of Illinois, has accepted a Democratic nomination in that State, and rejoices tumultuously over his conversion to its party. The Herald is a fast paper! Browning was A Johnson's Secretary of the Interior and has long been one of the most bitter of the enemies of the Republican party He has been acting with the Democratic party for about five years yet the Herald seems to have just heard of the fact, and takes it as an indication that the strongest men of the Republican party are "deserting" it! It will take that paper some time at this rate to figure its party into a majority

The San Francisco Examiner says that Governor Haight intends to submit to the California Legislature a plan to prevent the immigration of Chinese The Governor and Legislature of one of our States have about as much to do with this matter as they have with regulating the foreign policy of Madagascar Are the leaders of the party which proposes such impossible and absurd things as this fools or knaves They are fools if they suppose they can control a thing that lies entirely within the jurisdiction of the General Government and knaves if knowing they cannot control it they attempt to do so to gain votes for their party

There is clearly a growing conviction that [illegible] Byron is

[illegible]n of this piece of family history says Of the truth of this frightful story, which has long been whispered about so far at least as that this was Lady Byron's motive there can, it would seem be little doubt The Pall Mall [illegible] of September 4th pronounces the same opinion and notices the fact that the solicitors of Lady Byron's descendants Messrs Wharton & Fords do not deny the truth of Mrs Stowe's testimony

It is to be inferred says the Budget that substantially Mrs Stowe's statement is correct and that more remains to be told worse cannot be behind!

AGRICULTURE AND BACKBONE—Gen Butler delivered an address on the 23d September at the State Agricultural Fair in Massachusetts He asserted that too little was done to foster agriculture by legislation, while every other industry received a large share of legislative attention He made the following characteristic statement

The direct expenditure by the State last year in behalf of agriculture was $1 400 while $[illegible] in addition to $8 000 heretofore appropriated was in the same year appropriated for the purpose of republishing the History of the [illegible] celebrate Ans [illegible] of Massachusetts, which being interpreted is the history of animals lacking backbone He by no means wished to urge that this last expenditure was unnecessary partly because, although that kind of animal is not confined to Massachusetts yet as it is supposed that the politicians are generally included in that class so therefore the republication of such history might have become a sort of State necessity

Lord Byron—Mrs. Stowe

The revelation, by Mrs Stowe of the cause of the separation of Lord and Lady Byron has as we predicted produced a general sensation in at least the journalistic world of England and America The discussion will evidently still go on until decisive evidence shall prove or disprove her statement We are willing now after all the pros and cons given on both sides of the Atlantic so far as we have seen them to say deliberately that we can no longer doubt the substantial accuracy of the enormous charge and we repeat our former affirmation that the vindication of the suffering virtuous and noble wife justifies the publication Literary history has mercilessly and rigorously held the question forth through long and weary years, as one of character between the libertine poet and the saintly woman She has had to bear the insidious criticism of every biographer of her husband of nearly every critic who has casually alluded to the domestic rupture She bore all in meek silence and Christian forbearance She confided the shocking secret to Mrs Stowe, a friend and a representative literary woman of the times to be used after her death, if circumstances should ever justify its publication Byron's Italian mistress having recently published a volume in which all the disparagement of the abused and buried wife are repeated, Mrs Stowe has rightly come before the true womanhood and true manhood of our times, and laid upon the grave of her friend a vindication, which if it be true, can leave no longer a question about the conduct of the wife, and fixes forever the blame where it belongs If anything can relieve the horror with which the world reads the record, it is the triumphant vindication of virtue which it affords—so long delayed, but so sternly decisive at last.

It is surprising how reckless criticism has dared to show itself in this case It is frequently affirmed that if even true, the revelation should not have been made, that the secret should be given to eternal oblivion. This is, indeed, a new strain for the defenders of Byron Where has there been one of them who has not, before this revelation, held precisely the contrary language? The incessant refrain of nearly all of them has been denunciation of the poet's wife for not asserting the assumed sufficient reason for her conduct Only a few months since, Blackwood's Magazine, evidently incited by Guiccioli's book published "Reminiscences of Lord Byron," in which Lady Byron is dragged from the grave, to be made the object of the most heartless and scathing criticism And for nothing is she more denounced than for dying without a revelation of her alleged secret

"Whatever real or fancied wrongs" says the Blackwood writer, "Lady Byron may have endured, are shrouded in an impenetrable mist of her own creation—a poisonous miasma in which she enveloped the character of her husband—raised by her breath, and which her breath only could have dispersed 'She dies and makes no sign. O God! forgive her!'"

We are astonished that there should be any objection to the revelation on the ground of its moral effect There can be no other such effect than horror at vice Mrs Stowe has told the story in a manner which may well make vice blush, but virtue never

We said, in our late account of the case, that Lady Byron kept this horrible secret almost entirely to herself. It is well known that she sent her mother to Dr Lushington to represent her grievances, and that the distinguished counsellor recommended a reconciliation, but that she then herself confidentially revealed to him a farther fact, which changed his mind and led him to advise her against any thought of reconciliation Hithero the world has been unable to do more than conjecture what this secret could be Lushington's well known opinion, however now lends confirmation to Mrs Stowe's narrative The Tribune, in one of its editorials on the subject, cites from the Temple Bar magazine, London an article on "Byron's Married Life" which alludes to Lushington's opinion, 'What,' says the Tribune, "could have induced an advocate in the ecclesiastical courts to give an opinion so apparently at variance with all ecclesiastical usages? We leave the writer in Temple Bar to reply There is but one answer Dr Lushington must have assumed the existence of a fact from which inevitably followed the same consequence that Lord Thurlow pointed out to the House of Lords when he prevailed with them to give what had never been allowed before, the right of marrying again to a woman seeking divorce for the cause of her husband's adultery As a general rule the right was given to a man whose wife had committed adultery, because he could not take her again and was denied to a woman whose husband had been guilty of the same offence, because they might be reconciled In the particular instance before the House of Lords, the husband had been guilty with his wife's sister. The wife could not without guilt return to him and therefore she was permitted to marry again When Dr Lushington declares reconciliation to be impossible, and that if attempted he could take no part in the attempt professionally or otherwise, he must be understood to mean that "duty both to God and man" forbade Lady Byron to return to her husband This," continues the Tribune "is a guarded passage, but its meaning is clear enough now that Mrs Stowe has given us the clue Lady Byron could not return to her husband for the same reason that a wife could not return to a husband who had committed adultery with her sister adultery with a wife's sister, by English law is incest So long as Byron was afraid of provoking his wife to make a full disclosure he was ready enough in a romantic sort of way to shoulder a load of indefinite blame and to paint his partner and victim as a suffering angel

To [illegible]hers share let female erro[illegible] fall
For she had not [illegible] one—the worst of all

It was easy for him to deny all knowledge of the specific offence for which he was discarded, and the world then would suspect nothing more than the fashionable infidelities of which he never made a secret But the true cause says the article from which we have quoted was always present to his mind and if it were of the class [illegible] which Dr Lushington's opinion points his consciousness would prompt the answer that he gave

It seems impossible to avoid the conclusion that the cause had never been explained to him that he knew the cause—and did not dare to ask for explanation

The solicitors of Lady Byron's heirs have published a card in London declaring Mrs Stowe's narrative unauthorized and incomplete [illegible] this appears [illegible] Mrs Stowe's statement [illegible] letters do not dare to say that the narrative is false but [illegible] It seems that the heirs intended sooner or later, to make public [illegible] the facts and the solicitors are [illegible] that Mrs Stowe [illegible] contrary to Lady Byron's will should have [illegible] But what had Mrs Stowe to do with the unpublished will How should she know anything about it She has acted in accordance with Lady Byron's confidential understanding with her

A writer in the London News says that Mrs Stowe has unveiled a secret formerly carefully guarded and restored virture and vice to their proper places and that in future there is [illegible] imposture less in the world In spite of all the clamorous newspapers newspaper denounciation [illegible] Mrs Stowe and sympathetic interest for the poet, we believe this opinion will soon be the only one entertained by candid men—A [illegible] Method st

RELIGIOUS.—The subjoined items are from the Advocate:

We regret to learn that not only Canyon City, but the entire county of Grant, is without the services of any regularly appointed Protestant minister.

[illegible] will dedicate the Saal Chapel (at Dayton) in person, or by some one else, on the 17th inst.

Bishop [illegible], of the Roman Catholic Church, who has labored in Oregon since 1838, has gone to attend the [illegible] Council which meets at Rome in December next.

There are, it is said, 1500 inhabitants of this city between the ages of five and twenty years. Of this number, it is [illegible] that only about 300 attend regularly any Sabbath school.

[illegible] H. N. George, G. W. C. T., of the organization of [illegible], has been in our city the past week. He is engaged in visiting the various Lodges in the State, [illegible] and encouraging the cause of temperance. He is doing good service for the cause.

At a meeting of delegates from the various Sunday schools of this city, held on Wednesday evening last at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, it was resolved to recommend to the various Sunday schools of this city, to hold their school sessions hereafter at 9½ A. M.

The Salem District Preacher's Convention, appointed to be held at Corvallis, Oct. 25th, is hereby recalled. [illegible] some of the ministers in the district, it is deemed best to give the above notice. Bro. Clark, on account of poor health, has been obliged to desist from his work on the Silverton charge. Bro. Wood will take charge of the circuit in connection with South Salem. [illegible] is supplied by Dr. Boswell. As yet, no [illegible] found for Corvallis.

The [illegible] session of the Oregon Annual Conference of the United Brethren in Christ was held at Hopewell, Yamhill county, Oregon, September 29th [illegible] 1869, Bishop Weaver, of Indiana, presiding. [illegible] members were present. Two were received, and three were licensed to preach. [illegible] 1,051 members, a net increase of sixty [illegible].

[illegible] NEWS.—From the Pacific Blade, the first issue of which was received last night, we obtain the following:

The People's Transportation Company have a number of men employed cleaning out the river between [illegible] Lafayette and Dayton.

[illegible] Davis, the inventor of Davis' Combined Reaper and Thresher, has invented a ditching machine [illegible] is pronounced by those familiar with such work, [illegible] admirably adapted to the purpose for which it [illegible].

[illegible] temperance meeting was held at McMinnville [illegible] of the 6th inst.

[illegible] Mr. J. Lenox came near losing an eye, [illegible] by the rebound of a knife which he was [illegible] a wall.

[illegible] has a brass band numbering nine members under the leadership of L. B. Johnson.

[illegible] eighty pupils attending the McMinnville [illegible].

[illegible] mills are running day and night.

[illegible] in Lafayette are all full.

[illegible] from Lafayette to Wheatland is petitioning [illegible].

[illegible] persons in the county jail to be tried [illegible].

[illegible] at Lafayette is in contemplation—to be [illegible].

On the 28th of September the following named officers [illegible] by the McMinnville Lodge, I. O. G. T.:—[illegible] Johns; W. E. H. S.—Martha J. Jamison; [illegible] Ella L. Woods, W. V. T.—Mary E. [illegible]; W. S.—J. N. Miller; W. A. S.—Syrena Henderson; W. F. S.—Edward Norton; W. T.—Mary Johns; [illegible] Baylor; W. D. M.—Margaret V. Turney; [illegible] Bean; W. O. G.—L. M. Martin; W. [illegible]; P. W. C. T.—J. H. Johnson.

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH.—The Annual Conference of United Brethren, which closed on the 3d instant, made the following appointments:

[illegible] District—J. B. Lichtenthaler, P. E.
[illegible] Circuit—A. Bennett.
[illegible] Circuit—L. M. Salloe.
[illegible] Mission—To be supplied.
[illegible] Mission—W. McCoy.

[illegible]—W. Hurlburt.
[illegible]—C. E. Philbrook.
[illegible] President and Agent of Philomath [illegible].

[illegible] TAXES.—The Commercial has an editorial [illegible] the O. S. N. Co., from which it appears [illegible] paid taxes in Wasco county in 1866, [illegible] and in Multnomah county in 1860, $10,798. The [illegible] We select these years to show what they [illegible] when they were running at the heaviest [illegible] opposition ever since. Beside, they pay [illegible] of the taxes collected in the county of [illegible], as well as 2½ per cent. Federal tax upon [illegible] receipts. Including Federal, State [illegible] with municipal [illegible] ments, they pay more [illegible] and income than the regular rate [illegible] money market of older communities, [illegible] will show that they have paid from fifty to a [illegible] dollars per year in the shape of public [illegible] added to current expenses and other [illegible] events, amount to an imposing outlay."

[illegible] WORKINGMEN'S ASSOCIATION.—The [illegible] of the above organization was held, pursuant [illegible], at 7½ o'clock on the evening of [illegible], at St. John's Hall, East Portland. The [illegible] the head of this article was adopted as the [illegible] the association shall be known. A short [illegible] address was made by W. W. Chapman, [illegible] suggestions of practical importance [illegible] upon the question at issue—that of a [illegible] and effective organization of the laboring [illegible] society. After receiving the reports of [illegible] other necessary business, the [illegible] adjourned to meet again at the same place on [illegible] evening, Thursday, the 14th instant, at [illegible]. CHARLES A. [illegible], Secretary.

"[illegible]."—This is the heading of a [illegible] by which Messrs. Jackson, Sanderson [illegible] that they have received by [illegible], an immense stock of seasonable goods [illegible] and that they soon expect another large [illegible] from Liverpool. Everything comes from [illegible] that they can sell cheap. Their present display [illegible] and fancy glasswares, crockery, cutlery, [illegible], and an endless variety of household furniture [illegible] is one of the best to be found on the Pacific [illegible].

[illegible] DEALERS.—Messrs. Clarke, Henderson [illegible] Washington and First streets, are [illegible] large assortments of staple and fancy [illegible] in New York, only a few days since, [illegible] Pacific Railroad. On almost every- [illegible] the freight by that route is light compared [illegible] rates by steamer, and they can [illegible] far below the old figures, and below all [illegible] do not import direct from New York, [illegible]. We invite attention to their new [illegible].

[illegible] LIBRARY.—The following new books have [illegible] to the Portland Library: The Man who [illegible], Victor Hugo; The Life of Joan of Arc; [illegible] a novel; [illegible]; Art Recreations, A Guide [illegible] Work, by Urbino; Walter Savage Landor, [illegible] by John Foster; Waterloo, a Sequel to the [illegible] Second Part of Little Women, by Alcott; [illegible] by Darley; The Household Angel in Disguise [illegible] Leslie; The Hollands, by Virginia Townsend; [illegible] the Fairy, by Jean Ingelow.

[illegible] C. P. PRESBYTERY.—The annual meeting [illegible] Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian [illegible] held last week at McMinnville. Measures [illegible] to raise funds for the building of a church next [illegible], and resolutions were adopted in favor [illegible] liquor law. Friday, October 29th, was [illegible] a day of fasting and prayer. The next annual [illegible] will be held at Salem on Thursday preceding [illegible] Sabbath in May, 1870.

[illegible] TO OREGON.—Mr. L. F. Cartee, of Idaho [illegible] of Oregon, having returned from a visit to [illegible] the Boise Chronicle that several men of [illegible] taken under consideration the project of [illegible] railroad from the Union Pacific through Idaho [illegible] Oregon and will try, at the next session of Congress [illegible] appropriation. If they succeed with Congress [illegible] work on the Oregon and Idaho railroad will be [illegible] commenced.

REAL ESTATE.—There has been no time within the last [illegible] years when real estate transactions have been so [illegible] during this summer and fall. Lots in any [illegible] parts of the city—no matter how distant from [illegible]—are in active demand at prices which, [illegible] three years ago, would have been astonishing. [illegible] the week transfers have been made to the aggregate [illegible] of $12,000, without more than one large sale.

[illegible].—To-night, at Oro Fino Theater, Prof. [illegible] will exhibit tricks of legerdemain, ventriloquism, [illegible]. His performances heretofore, have been well [illegible] by the press.

[illegible] Supper and sociable at Nonpareil Lodge next Tuesday [illegible].

[illegible] Dancing soiree, this evening at the Washington Guard's [illegible].

THE [illegible].—We learn from officers of the O. S. N. Co. that it has been determined to bring the [illegible] down over the Cascades at the next high [illegible] to run between Portland and the Cascades. The [illegible] is a first class boat of great speed, capacity and [illegible] passenger accommodations. Portland [illegible] her appearance in the Wallamet with pleasure.

[illegible] RUNAWAY.—A country team—a bunkum span [illegible] went down First street last evening, at a rate [illegible] speed, and creating a sensation, seldom seen in this [illegible] and sober city. Though the street was full of [illegible] and wagons, strangely enough there was no damage [illegible]. The horses were captured at the north end [illegible] and brought back uninjured.

[illegible] SCHOOL FAIR.—Tickets are being sold by [illegible] of the Beth Israel school for the fair to be [illegible] on Sunday (to-morrow) at the school room. The [illegible] are to be devoted to the purchase of an organ [illegible] the use of the school. Tickets of admission 12½ [illegible]. The fair will, doubtless, be interesting, and, we [illegible] useful.

The [illegible] have beaten every base ball club [illegible] they have played with on the Pacific Coast, and NEARLY READY.—The steamer Carrie, opposition, has been laid up several week undergoing repairs to her boiler, wheel, floors, etc. She is now, however, nearly ready for service, and will probably have steam up on Monday or Tuesday. She is to run down the Columbia, as heretofore, making trips as occasion may require, up Lewis, Lake and Cowlitz rivers.

CANED.—Two local reporters who were sleuthing around yesterday, at the corner of Stark and Front streets, were caned by Henry Rosenfeld. No damage done, however, and no arrests. The one we got is a substantial hickory which we shall carry in remembrance of Henry. Long may he wave, whether he likes waving or otherwise.

INCREASE OF BUSINESS.—During the summer just passed, the freighting business on the Columbia, above Celilo was so light that only one boat was employed. We learned at the O. S. N. Co.'s office, yesterday, that business has so revived as to require the services of two steamers, and another has been put on.

VANCOUVER.—A meeting of the citizens of Vancouver is to be held on next Monday evening to consider the matter of the notice given by the Government to all civilians to vacate the military reserve.

The Register notes the return of several old residents who have been absent to the East or to California.

FOR THE EAST.—Senator Corbett will probably start some time during the week for the East. He will go to the State Fair, remain a day or two, and continue on by the overland route to California.

PAID OUT.—During this week, Mr. Wakefield, Disbursing Agent of the U. S. on account of public buildings, has paid out, mostly to day laborers, between five and six thousand dollars.

TO LEAVE.—About Monday or Tuesday, the bark Whistler will drop down to St. Johns to take on board a large lot of barrel staves, for San Francisco, and then proceed on her voyage.

WATER ON THIRD STREET.—The Portland Water Company is about to lay down a water main on Third street, to connect with Morrison street main.

STEAMER MAIL.—The mail for California by steamer Moses Taylor will close this afternoon at 4 o'clock and 15 minutes.

EVERYBODY IS OUT SHOPPING these days, and it is just the time to get the Fall and Winter Styles. It is almost impossible to pass the splendid store of KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91, Front street, without being drawn in by the attraction of those charming New Suits, and the enormous piles of elegant clothing and fancy goods of every description and quality. They have, unquestionably, the largest stock and best assortment of goods that can be found in the city of Portland. Messrs. Kohn & Fishel bring their goods direct from New York, and sell as cheap as the cheapest.

REMEMBER.—That on Tuesday evening, October 12th, the Nonpareil Lodge, I. O. G. T., will give a Supper and Sociable at the Hall on First street, between Yamhill and Taylor. Tickets can be obtained at the door.

USE KANE'S IMPERIAL CONDENSED SOAP. It washes without rubbing. For sale by Allen & Lewis, Corbitt & McCleay, R. G. Sneath and all retailers.

Fessenden's Origin.

A CHAPTER FROM THE LIFE OF A DECEASED STATESMAN.

[From the New York Independent.]

In manners (and manners are tell-tales of men) he always appeared to be an aristocrat—a character unseemly in our eyes. Even to his friends (except the most intimate,) during the first few moments of every renewed interview, he exhibited something forbidding in his demeanor. His countenance, even in its lightest mood, never wholly lost its severity. His merriest laugh did not altogether unwrinkle those lines of his face which showed him to be a good hater. His graven image on our decimal currency is flabbily devoid of all his Roman dignity. Self-respect sat upon him like a supreme virtue. It is a mistake to suppose, as some have asserted, that he suffered a perpetual pang at the remembrance of his illegitimate birth. No civil tie can constitute, nor the absence of it nullify, the natural and unashamed allegiance which a manly son must ever bear to his mother. Not till man's estate did Mr. Fessenden come to the knowledge of his shadowed origin; but when he suddenly discovered that there was living in New England a lady, of whose existence he had been utterly ignorant, but who had brought him into the world, he made haste to see her face, to fall upon her neck and to mingle his tears of of joy and sorrow with her own. Nothing in all his career was nobler than the filial affection and respect which he never ceased to render to this superior woman during her remaining years on earth.

HIS RECONCILIATION WITH SUMNER.

It will be a satisfaction to the friends of Mr. Fessenden and Mr. Sumner to know that the long estrangement between these gentlemen was happily concluded several months ago. Their restored friendship increased in heartiness to the last. A day or two before Mr. Fessenden's death a visitor to his bedside reported that a telegram had just come from Boston to the bulletins in Portland, in these words: "The Hon. Charles Sumner is dying." Mr. Fessenden suddenly raised his head and exclaimed: "Is it possible? I had a paper from Mr. Sumner only yesterday. How transitory is human life. What a loss to the country." And, paying his friend the loftiest of tributes, he spoke of their reconciliation in touching terms.

FESSENDEN IN PRIVATE LIFE.

The brief encomiums with which the leading journals accompanied their announcement of Mr. Fessenden's death show how far less was his hold on the country than on the Senate. These notices show, too, that their writers and the people generally have not fully known how grand were his powers, how rich his feelings, and how just his aims. We ourselves may be writing of him without judgement, but not without knowledge. We have sat with him in his chamber in Washington, and walked with him in his garden in Portland. We knew him well. Proud, bitter and indifferent in his outer life—pure, gentle and sorrowful in his inner—he presented to us the spectacle of a strong nature in a seeming triumph over the world but in a losing struggle against itself. The portrait of the younger Pitt that hung on his library wall fitly shed down on his namesake the reflection of a tempest-tossed soul. Domestic bereavement—of which he had more than a common share—pierced his "heart of hearts" with a succession of many wounds. They who love deeply, and for love's sake suffer strongly, make no common claim on the world's sympathy. A man who would go to a vine which had been planted by dear, dear hands, and would caress its blossoms till his eyes grew dewy with remembrance, deserves over his own clay a memorial tear.

"Set him down gently at the iron door."

Dent's ticket is made to draw. Two carpet-baggers are expected to draw all that vote. A "nigger" has been selected to draw the colored vote, and a Confederate officer to perform the same service by the rebels, while a Union soldier, at the fag end of the ticket, is expected to bring in every loyal man. The difficulty is, that as they all pull in opposite directions, there is danger that the machine will not move at all.

England has paid forty million dollars toward defraying the expenses of the Abyssinian war.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, [illegible] is nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the [illegible], the very flattering though unwilling [illegible] of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

THE EQUALIZER!
Treating Disease by Vacuum
DR. H. A. BODMAN
HAVING PURCHASED HADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat [illegible] fully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed.
Having used this Instrument in connection with his medical practice for about three months, he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic D[illegible]. He does not believe in the system of advertising cases cured, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine, Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, [illegible], Narrow Chests, Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak, Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, Spasms, Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus Uteri, Obstructed Menstruation, with all their concomitant D[illegible], Impotency and all kinds of weaknesses of the Generative Organs, Spermatorrhea confidently [illegible] in from four to six weeks without medicine.
He uses other [illegible] when [illegible], but the Equalizer generally performs the cure without the aid of any medicine whatever. It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts, thus creating new life and tone, and health and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation throughout every part of the system.
Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results. It has been examined by thousands of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not [illegible] one dissenting voice to the [illegible] of the principle; all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the S[illegible] of Medicine.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND, Oct. 8, 1869.

Gold in New York 1 [illegible]

Legal Tenders 75 [illegible]

U. S. five-twenties 1862, [illegible]

The money market presents no particularly new aspect. The interior merchants are paying their obligations rather slowly, as compared with the amount of goods they are buying. In comparison with the business doing money is somewhat more scarce than at any time during the year. The late demand for gold in New York did not of course affect our market very seriously, yet the effect was perceptible. San Francisco wanted to send gold East and drew upon us for all that could be had. During the week ending Sept. 30th, $1,700,000 were taken out of the Pacific coast circulation, of which amount, Oregon and Victoria furnished $[illegible].

On the first of October the Commercial Herald stated the amounts of treasure shipment during September as follows:

"Sept. 4—Per Japan—

New York wheat quotation $1 75. Flour, $5 50@9 50 ⅌ bbl.

Liverpool—wheat 15s 8d.

Our local produce market is still quiet with a downward tendency in prices of many articles. Wheat has dropped to 70c for extra white; inferior grades selling from 50 to 65c. Good red, 65c. Much of the wheat coming into market shows damage, and there is reason to believe that some of the farmers have adopted the ruinous policy of mixing damaged grain with good, to better their general average. Nothing could be more ruinous to their own individual or the general interests of the produce trade. Buyers are quick to detect the dishonest subterfuge, and they will pay, of course, for such grain only the price of damaged wheat. The standard price all round is thus lowered. The best policy for the farmer, is to offer his damaged wheat for just what it is, and get what he can for it. If he has any really good wheat, he should keep it carefully unmixed, and he may be assured he will get the price of good wheat. It would seem that the experiences of the past should have taught our people that they cannot mix any inferior kind of produce with good, without loss on their average.

Extra brands of flour are quoted as heretofore, though sales are limited and often at figures hardly up to quotations. Country brands are a little down, with no demand.

Most kinds of provisions are a trifle lower with an inactive market.

Merchandise market active. In hardware, there are no changes in prices; trade much improved; stocks full. Groceries—trade unusually large; prices firm. Dry Goods—quotations as last week, business active.

During the week there have been quite a number of heavy buyers in the market from Puget Sound. This trade is becoming important, and should the freighting facilities that have been furnished the past summer, be continued, we look for a still further large growth. Considerable quantities of goods are now going up the Columbia river from our wholesale houses, while the Willamette valley trade keeps well up to the usual average. All in all, our wholesale merchants are doing a heavier business than ever before during the fall season. The only unfavorable feature is the somewhat long credits asked and conceded. In the end, considering the prospects of the produce market, these credits will be found troublesome to both buyer and seller.

The bark Adeline Elwood has been chartered by Corbitt & Macleay, to take a cargo of wheat to Liverpool, direct. This may be and it is expected it will be, the inauguration of a direct line of freighting vessels between this city and the great shipping port of Europe. Unless some unforeseen event shall intervene to prevent, four or five other vessels will probably follow the Elwood, in the course of a few months. The firm which has this charter has been buying largely in the interior of the State, at prices quite as high as the prospective market will justify, and even higher than would be warranted were the consignment to be made through any other means than direct shipment to the market port.

The opening of direct trade with Europe will be another and an important era in our agricultural and commercial progress. The enterprise is one to whose success every man in the State should contribute. Thus far our markets have been few and quite unreliable in respect of profits returned. Gradually we are extending our trade to new markets—new to us—and breaking away from the domination of San Francisco. We now send an occasional vessel to China, direct; to Australia direct; to New York direct; and to other ports without passing our products through the hands of intermediate buyers at San Francisco. To increase the number of these enterprises and to ensure the success of all, should be one of the first cares of every farmer and merchant in the State. To this end, holders of grain, especially, should afford every possible facility to buyers for foreign markets. Above all things, they should avoid the old fatal error of putting up the price of grain the moment a buyer makes his appearance in the neighborhood. Farmers may rest assured that the price of wheat is as high now as there is any reason to expect it to be during this fall and winter; and higher than it will be if we must depend altogether upon San Francisco as our purchaser. If farmers and other holders of grain refuse to sell so that exporters to foreign and new markets, can realize a reasonable profit, we cannot, of course, expect to ever get lines of trade opened with foreign ports; and we must then remain forever in the grip of the California dealers. Every vessel sent to Liverpool, to China, to Australia, to New York, opens the way to another one, if our people will only be wise. By this sort of extension of our trade, only, can we hope to ever secure constant and remunerative markets for our products. It is, therefore, plain enough what course it will be wise for our grain holders to pursue.

San Francisco market—Following are rates telegraphed yesterday: Wheat—good milling, $1 45; fair to choice shipping, $1 45@1 50. Oats—firm at 95c to $1 25 for light to choice heavy.

Following is from the Commercial Herald of October 1st:

The arrivals of grain from the interior continue to exhibit a considerable increase over a like period in any previous year. At the same time, our breadstuff exports are proportionately great, notwithstanding the unusually large accumulation in warehouse, not only in this city, but at most of the interior shipping points. These store accumulations consist largely of second class, inferior wheat, with considerable barley and oats. One notable feature of the grain market this season is the very general desire upon the part of growers, large and small, to realize—to sell promptly at current market rates, low and unremunerative as they are. The reasons of this are the dear-bought experience of the past, in holding over for a rise, and the prevailing scarcity and stringency of the money market. Besides, the fact is daily becoming more and more apparent that the wheat crop exceeds all expectation in its yield, that the barley crop is excessive for lack of an export market, and the yield of oats and hay is up to the full average.

In regard to markets, we remark a lull in the export demand for wheat—our chief staple—mainly by reason of the disturbing elements in the New York gold market, unsettling values of sterling bills, and in a variety of ways, blocking the wheels of commerce throughout the land. Grain freights are out of proportion high, partly by reason of temporary scarcity, the large fleet of vessels now due at this port making unusually long passages for the season. China has, during September, made liberal drafts upon us for low grades of flour, with a moderate demand for standard brands for the United Kingdom and Central America. Otherwise, the demand for flour is inconsiderable. We miss greatly the eastern request for our choice brands of extra flour, for baker and family use. The large trade in the line which for two years we enjoyed with Boston, New York and Philadelphia, with a fair prospect for a long continuance, has been staggered by the good wheat crops prevailing on the other side of the continent. Thus far during the season we have had no export inquiry from the Australian Colonies, either for flour or grain with a lessened demand for barley from Peru, thus leaving us without our usual outlets for feed grains. Potatoes and onions continue abundant and cheap. The business in wool and hides is largely circumscribed by limited supplies. The very low rates for wool are not sufficiently remunerative to compensate for the expenses of a fall clip, unless necessary for the health of the sheep. Hides being in constant request by local tanneries, reduces the quantity for export to a considerable extent. Tallow continues in limited supply, with an active local demand.

Flour—Supplies continue to reach us from the North as well as from the interior of our own State. The Moses Taylor, on her last trip from Oregon, brought 6,[illegible] qr and 3,000 hf sks, consisting mainly of favorite brands, selling to consumers at full rates.

Wheat—The market lacks animation, receipts free and holders in the main disposed to sell; quality, as heretofore, very variable—the extremes of the market 90c@1 60 per ctl. The general price paid by exporters rules from $1 50@1 55. Millers secure good lots from $1 50@1 45; distillers purchase from $1@1 25, according to quality. There is no apparent disposition to speculate, or to purchase beyond present wants.

The receipts of certain articles of Oregon produce from January 1st to date, have been as follows: Flour, qr sks 300,832; wheat, sks 29,786; oats, sks [illegible]; barley, sks 250; salmon, bbls 1,149, hf bbls 1,360, cs 15,499, pkgs 2,406; bacon, pkgs 4,297; beef, bbls [illegible]; butter, pkgs 655; cheese, pkgs 12; hams, pkgs 3[illegible]; lard, pkgs [illegible]; pork, bbls 1,123, hf bbls [illegible] [illegible]

From these, we find that of provisions Oregon apples are [illegible] and the market pretty well stocked with smoked meats, [illegible] Not so with butter and cheese; supplies are very limited and [illegible] without [illegible] The demand for beef and pork [illegible] in assorted boxes, hams [illegible] etc.

The Oregon City Woolen Mills are credited in the reports of the Mechanics' Fair with a very creditable display of cassimeres, in all about fifty pieces of assorted colors, and of various grades.

News from Honolulu is to Sept. 1[illegible]. Business is extremely dull and likely to be so for a while to come, until some return is had from the Arctic whaling fleet. The sugar crop [illegible] early [illegible]. The mills commence [illegible] again about the 1st of December next. It is estimated that the [illegible] crop will be the largest ever gathered [illegible]. The low grades of dark sugars and molasses in California have encouraged parties to ship to Bremen, the R. C. Wylie loading for that port, to be followed by another, which will give the Islanders some outlet for their molasses and low grades of sugar. The Honolulu Commercial Advertiser says: "Sugar and molasses come in quite freely [illegible] the plantations averaging 200 tons a week, with a prospect of continuance at the same rate to the close of the year, when there will probably be an increase. The reports from the plantations are generally good, and the average yield will be fully up to expectations." A private letter, dated Honolulu Sept. 15th, referring to the above, says: "My attention has just been called to a statement in the Advertiser that there will be 200 tons of sugar per week from this port for the balance of the year. After careful inquiry and estimate, I am confident that not over 1,700 tons will be made, and 500 of that will go to Europe, leaving 1,200 for San Francisco. Hereafter, the bulk of our low grades will go to Europe in bags."

Advices from foreign grain markets are not altogether discouraging. The Mark Lane Express of August 30th, says: "The millers are taking advantage of the farmers' want of cash, and cause a temporary depression, which will be followed by the greater rebound, for the crop is not equal to the demand. There has been no such reduction in any other part of Europe as is noted here, and we shall have to look to America for our chief supplies, and it is pretty clear that we shall have to advance prices as an inducement to shippers."

The New York Shipping List of the 11th inst. says there is no room to doubt that the supply of breadstuffs in the trans-Atlantic nations is deficient. The London Shipping Gazette reports the English wheat crop as considerably under an average. The Bulletin's New York commercial correspondent, reports that "all the European nations are short of breadstuffs."

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering as a consequence of the effects of secret diseases, often absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of life, or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid disease thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be too late. [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, [illegible] is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends to be careful of the [illegible] landed doctors who infest all cities, publishing [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing [illegible] public by using the names of eminent physicians [illegible] Europe and other places. He therefore requests [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an alarming [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] ical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about [illegible] furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately, either [illegible] or by letter, and have a cure effected by his [illegible] scientific mode of treating this disease, which [illegible] effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will [illegible] Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] rily to him that he was cured of his complaint [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies, should [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will [illegible] patients a written instrument, binding himself [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no [illegible]

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED [illegible] by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating [illegible] toms, length of time the disease has continued [illegible] medicines promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with [illegible] directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent [illegible] ter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe [illegible] Some of the self-styled doctors, whose [illegible] found in the daily and weekly newspapers [illegible] cisco and other places, are tradesmen, and [illegible] buy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] bakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory [illegible] will not find their Medical Institutes in it, [illegible] find their occupations in it. Look in the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to [illegible] tion's to make enquiry—it will cost you [illegible] may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not [illegible] exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, [illegible] letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy [illegible] call at his office of his ability to treat [illegible] proposes to cure.

THE APPETITE FOR TOBACCO DESTROYED!

LEAVE OFF SMOKING AND CHEWING THE POISONOUS WEED, TOBACCO.

ORTON'S PREPARATION

ESTABLISHED 1866.

One box of Orton's Preparation is warranted to destroy the appetite for Tobacco, in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be. If it fails in any case the money will be refunded. It is almost safe and harmless to all. It is almost impossible to break off the use of Tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted. With the help of the Preparation, there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact, that Orton's Preparation completely destroys the appetite for Tobacco, and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by Tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of Tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings for Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Recollect it is warranted.

The time taken to allay all desire for Tobacco by the use of the Preparation varies slightly in different persons, the average time being about Five days. Some have no desire for Tobacco whatever after using the Preparation Two days.

The Health and Purse of every Tobacco user in the country calls loudly against the use of [illegible]

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the [illegible] recommendations in our possession:

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco, and can assure those suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will [illegible] ly destroy the appetite for Tobacco, quickly and permanently, and without any bad effect upon the health, and without creating an appetite either for the strong [illegible] any stimulants.

From Samuel Cassidy, Editor Journal & [illegible]

[illegible] California, Dec. [illegible]

For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years had been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of this narcotic was seriously affecting my health, I determined if possible to check the habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for Tobacco, I sent to Portland for a box of the medicine, which I received [illegible] on the 17th of November. A month has not passed, yet the medicine has effectually relieved me from a craving or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than is commencing chewing gum. I [illegible] have the Preparation will have the [illegible] effect in every instance where it is given [illegible] I [illegible] heartily [illegible] in all honest desire to [illegible] who wish to break away from the slavish [illegible] Tobacco [illegible]

SAMUEL [illegible]

☞ Beware of counterfeits and all articles [illegible] [illegible] Preparation [illegible] Purchasers order directly from the Proprietor or his duly appointed Agents.
